1. Introduction

1.1 Rationale

Under the Equality Act 2010 all schools should have an Accessibility Plan and is listed as a statutory document of the Department for Education's guidance on statutory policies for schools. It also states that: "schools cannot unlawfully discriminate against pupils because of sex, race, disability, religion or belief and sexual orientation".

1.2 Definition

According to the Equality Act 2010 a person has a disability if:

He or she has a physical or mental impairment, and the impairment has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on his or her ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities.

1.2 Aims

- Increasing access for disabled pupils to the school curriculum (this includes teaching and learning and the wider curriculum of the school such as participation in after-school clubs, leisure and cultural activities or school visits)
- Improving access to the physical environment of schools (this includes improvements to the physical environment of the school and physical aids to access education)
- Improving the delivery of written information to disabled pupils (this will include planning to make written information that is normally provided by the school to its pupils available to disabled pupils. The information should take account of pupils' disabilities and pupils' and parents' preferred formats and be made available within a reasonable timeframe)

2. Leadership and management

1.1. Roles and responsibilities

The Accessibility Plan for physical accessibility relates to the Access Audit of the School, which remains the responsibility of the Full Governing Body. It may not be feasible to undertake all of the works during the life of this accessibility plan and therefore some items will roll forward into subsequent plans. An accessibility audit will be completed by the school prior to the end of each period covering this plan in order to inform the development of a new Accessibility Plan for the ongoing period.

1.2. Continuing professional development

Improving teaching and learning lies at the heart of the school's work. Through self-review and Continuous Professional Development (CPD), we aim to enhance staff knowledge, skills and understanding to promote excellent teaching and learning for all children. We aim to meet every child's needs within mixed ability, inclusive classes.

1.3. Reviewing and monitoring

At Great Wilbraham CofE Primary School the Plan will be monitored by the Headteacher and evaluated by the relevant Governors' Finance and Premises Committee. We understand that the Local Authority will monitor the school's activity under the Equality Act 2010 (and in particular Schedule 10 regarding Accessibility) and will advise upon the compliance with that duty. The Accessibility Plan may also be monitored by Ofsted during inspection processes.

3. Teaching, learning and assessment

The Access Audit of the School will inform planning, implementation and revision of provision for individual pupils and care will be taken to ensure that transition from one class to another ensures procedures are followed.

4. Personal development, behaviour and welfare

We believe that children should feel happy, safe and valued so that they gain a respectful, caring attitude towards each other and the environment both locally and globally. Our core values are that we can 'work together to become caring, confident and creative learners'.

5. Outcomes for pupils

At Great Wilbraham CofE Primary School we are committed to working together to provide an inspirational and exciting learning environment where all children can develop an enthusiasm for life-long learning regardless of their education, physical, sensory, social, spiritual, emotional and cultural needs.

6. Communication

The Great Wilbraham CofE Primary School Accessibility Plan has been developed and drawn up based upon information supplied by the Local Authority, and consultations with pupils, parents, staff and governors of the school. Other, outside agencies and specialists have also been consulted. The Accessibility Plan will be published on the school website.
